

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

April 8, 2011

CONTACT:

James Allen

917-620-5817

James.Allen@mail.house.gov

WASHINGTON — U.S. Representative John Carney tonight released the following statement after the news of a budget agreement:

“I’m pleased that we have a budget agreement, although I’m not happy that it took this long and that the negotiations pushed us to the brink of a government shutdown.

“Now it’s time to get back to the bigger challenges of job creation and long-term deficit reduction.”

###